THE APPLICANT(S)

Give a short description of the artistic careers / experience of those involved in the project:

Use this space to explain your previous experience, the place of your current project in this experience, and what each artist brings to the project. (Do not explain your project itself here nor re-write the specific details of your CVs here)

Outline in a few sentences why circus is of interest to you / your company and how you see yourself / yourselves developing as creators in this field.

Use this space to detail the reasons why you want to carry out a circus project and what your aspirations are. How does the creation of this new piece of work fit in with your overall plans as an individual or a company? Please explain here your vision of circus and of your place as a creator within the sector.

YOUR PROJECT

Please describe here the creative project you would like to receive assistance for.

Use this space to present the artistic concept and the elements the finished performance might feature. Name any artistic collaborators you would like to work with as part of this project.

How many people are leading the project?

How many people will include your project include:

• on stage? • out of stage?

What is the role of the persons who are out of stage?

Which circus disciplines are represented? Please list them all.

Is it your first creation project? If not, what have you created so far? And in which conditions (length, support, touring...)?

What are your other projects if you have any?

Describe briefly your provisional creation process in case you are selected, breaking it down into time periods:

1/ before June 2018 (i.e. before the CircusNext selection week)

2/ between June 2018 and March 2019 (i.e. during CircusNext support phase)

3/ after March 2019 (i.e. after the CircusNext laureates public presentations in Paris)

What is your provisional premiere date?

Outline here the steps you want to take to achieve your project. Include information about research, rehearsal, processes, involvement of creators such as artistic directors or choreographers, outside eyes, additional training, proposed rehearsal schedules, etc.

SELECTION (WORK-IN-PROGRESS ON STAGE AND DISCUSSION WITH THE JURY)

If shortlisted, you will be invited to present a short work-in-progress on stage during the selection week in Neerpelt (Belgium), from May 28 to June 1, 2018.

[NB : the work-in-progress presentation should not exceed 20 minutes and should be 'light' in terms of technical requirements]

The selection week offers the shortlisted applicants the chance to show a 20-minute work-in-progress of their project. Following this, the applicants are invited to meet with the jury for 20-30 minutes to present their ideas through a facilitated discussion.

AVAILABILITIES

If shortlisted, and if you already have information on your schedule, please indicate dates when you are NOT available between the preselection and the selection week, i.e. between March and May 2018:

Reminder: if shortlisted, you must participate in the selection week from May 28 to June 1, 2018

If selected as laureate, and if you already have information on your schedule, please indicate dates when you are NOT available between the selection week and the public presentations in Paris, i.e. between June 2018 and March 2019:

Reminder: if laureate, you must participate in the public presentations in Paris from March 11 to 17, 2019

SUPPORT

What type of help do you think you will need to produce your project? And why?

Outline artistic and technical assistance that you will need to create the work, even after the final public presentations, such as:

- technical (lighting design, sound design, stage design...)
- administrative (a manager to help connect with professionals...)
- artistic (a stage director, a choreographer, a composer...)

Which support have you already secured for this project, from which source, and of which kind (in cash or in-kind)? If possible, evaluate your production budget (expenses and incomes).
